Studies, Prayer, & Fellowship

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Wednesdays, 9:15-10:30 AM (FH Library)

Beginning February 1, this study group led by Pastor Sara will use Lectio Divina (Latin for divine reading) to listen to the scriptures. This is an ancient method of scripture study that involves quiet reflection as we listen to one of the scripture lessons that will be used in worship the upcoming weekend. There is no book to read or prep work, so this is a great time to try out this group and recharge your spiritual batteries! In March we will turn to Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Cost of Discipleship. If you would like the church to order a book for you ($9.50), please contact Pastor Sara by February 17.

SATURDAY MORNING MEN'S GROUP

Saturday, February 3, 8:00-9:30 AM (Centerville Panera, Main St. & Franklin)

The men's group is beginning a new study. The group meets the first Sunday of each month at the Centerville Panera, and the other weeks in the FH Library. For more info, contact Ron Johnson (rjohns59@csc.com).

Please note: No class tomorrow, January 30, or February 13.

We're a part of God's story! We'll journey through the New Testament in search of God's narrative. In His story we might find our own. Facilitated by Andy Addy (aaddy@epiphanydayton.org). The book is available for purchase online or at local Christian bookstores. Note: The next book study will start at the end of February – What's So Amazing About Grace? by Phillip Yancey.
